

Confidentially and Privacy Statement for Carers

Medway NHS Foundation Trust (the Trust) Windmill Road, Gillingham, Kent ME7 5NY collects information about you in order to provide healthcare to the individual for whom you care. Some of our patients have carers who support them whilst they are receiving treatment at the Trust and other healthcare providers. Our aim is to maintain full and accurate records and to keep this information confidential and secure.

This explains how the Trust uses and manages the information it holds about carers, including how the information may be shared with other NHS organisations and non-NHS organisations, and how the confidentiality is maintained.

We may refer to different types of information such as “personal data” and “special personal data”.

Personal data is any information about a living individual who can be identified from that information.

There are special rules that apply to “special personal data”. Special personal data includes information about:

- Your health (including mental health)
- Genetic data and biometric data where processed to uniquely identify an individual
- Your sex life or sexual orientation
- Racial or ethnic origin
- Political opinions
- Religious or philosophical beliefs
- Trade union membership

We also refer to the “Care Team”. The Care Team is made up of the health and social care staff directly who provide or support your care. This includes doctors, nurses and social workers as well as members of staff who provide administrative or technical support like receptionists, porters and laboratory technicians.

Everyone working in the NHS has a legal duty to maintain the highest level of confidentiality. Some administrative processes require information that may identify you. This includes referrals to memory services, community mental health teams, dementia crisis support, social services and other community service providers.

Who is considered a carer?

A carer is anyone who look after a family member, partner or friend who needs help because of their illness, frailty, disability, mental health problems, an addiction, or someone who cannot cope without their support. The care that is given is unpaid.

What information do we collect?

The information we store and use about you can include:

- facts about you e.g. name, address, date of birth, nationality, gender and NHS number
- your relationship to the patient/individual you are caring for.
- the best contact details to reach you on.
- equality and diversity information about you. This may include special personal data like details of your ethnicity, sexual orientation, religious beliefs or opinion, biometric data, genetic data, criminal convictions and offences.
- notes and reports relevant to your health, including any information you have told us about your health.
- any criminal convictions
- details of any children living with the patient and the carer who are under the age of 16 or any other vulnerable young person or adult at the address may be requested.
- a copy of the Power of Attorney for Health and Welfare should the patient lack capacity.
- communications, for example letters and emails between the Trust and you as the carer of the patient.

The information may be stored manually in a paper record form or electronically on a computer system. Should the information we hold about you become inaccurate at any time, we ask that you notify us of promptly of any changes to your personal details e.g. address, contract number etc.

The purposes for which we use your personal data

We may use your personal data to:

- help other organisations provide you with health or social care
- if you agree, to help other organisations provide you with other public services
- Communicate with you in the capacity as a carer.
- carry out internal audits and monitor the care we provide to ensure it is of the highest standard
- monitor equality and diversity
- we may use anonymised data to help train and educate our staff. Should we use identifiable personal data we would always obtain your consent.
- respond to complaints
- respond to queries from our regulators such NHS Digital, the Care Quality Commission, the General Medical Council, the Audit Commission, the Nursing & Midwifery Council and the Health Service Ombudsman
- conduct legal claims or seek legal advice
- provide information to national registries that systematically collect data about particular conditions to help research which is only undertaken when consent is provided.

The Trust also has CCTV cameras on its premises. Further information can be found on the intranet under the CCTV policy which is available via the Trust intranet or upon request

We may also use your personal data to help us deliver NHS services better by:

- Assessing and planning the way services are delivered and paid for now and in the future
- Identifying whether you are at risk from ill-health or may benefit from particular treatments
- Medical research audits carried out by external organisations, including audits that cover quality of care and financial management

We can only use your personal data for these purposes if we meet at least one of the conditions set out in the General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) legislation. The table at the end of this notice details the conditions we rely on when processing personal data for each of the purposes outlined above.

The Trust is also working with NHS Digital to ensure compliance with the National Opt-out programme on the use of NHS data from 2020. You can opt-out of your information being used for these purposes by emailing our Data Protection Officer on medwayft.dpo@nhs.net. However, even if you opt out we may use anonymised personal data for the purposes below.

In all cases we will only share the minimum amount of personal data that is required. Where possible personal information will be anonymised, so that it is not possible to identify individuals.

Sharing your information

Sharing your information to provide you with care

As part of providing you with care we may need to share your information.

This includes sharing information with:

- the GP of the individual you are caring for, and out of hours care providers
- NHS hospitals including but not limited to Maidstone and Tunbridge Wells, Kings College Hospital and Guys & St Thomas's
- NHS Organisations that deliver Community services including but not limited to Medway Community Healthcare and Kent and Medway NHS and Social Care Partnership Trust, our mental health provider
- Private sector organisations that deliver NHS care such as private hospitals, dentists, opticians, pharmacists and other providers such as Virgin care services who provide community care in Swale and Sheppey community hospitals
- voluntary sector organisations that deliver NHS care e.g. charities such as Wisdom Hospice and Demelza
- local authorities when social workers are part of the Care Team, or education services, children's services, housing or benefit offices

- organisations that provide diagnostic tests
- organisations that provide ambulance services e.g. NHS Ambulance Trusts

With your agreement, information can be shared with relatives, partners or friends who act as a carer for you. You can find out more about this emailing our Data Protection Officer on medwayft.dpo@nhs.net. Please see the privacy notice for carers of patients at: <https://www.medway.nhs.uk/patients-and-public/access-to-information/subject-access-requests/>

We may also need to share your information with organisations that provide office support to the Trust in its delivery of services. These organisations are known as data processors. These organisations are only able to use your personal data in accordance with the Trust's instructions:

- IT suppliers
- Telephone services suppliers
- Suppliers of web hosting services
- Suppliers that we use to develop and improve the technology we use, including our website and electronic patient records

Sharing your information for other purposes

Usually we will not share information about you with other organisations unless they are involved in providing care for her person for whom you act as a carer or you have agreed to the information being shared. However, there are some circumstances where we may share information with other organisations who are not directly involved in your care. For example:

- where there is a risk of serious harm to you or other people
- where a serious crime, e.g. an assault is being investigated or if in certain circumstances it could be prevented
- to control serious infectious diseases e.g. meningitis, tuberculosis (TB), measles
- notification of a birth or death
- where the courts have made a formal court order
- where there is a legal requirement e.g. a road traffic offence has been committed
- with local authorities and particularly Medway Council under the Child Protection-Information Sharing (CPIS) scheme to protect the safety and well-being of vulnerable and looked-after children;
- under section 251 of the NHS Act 2006 to support essential medical research where it is not possible to use anonymised information and where obtaining consent is not practical. We may only share information under section 251 with bodies that are approved to receive such information. For more details please visit the Health Research Authority website;
- to produce anonymised statistics
- Where you have expressly agreed e.g. for medical insurance purposes

The organisations we may share information with in these situations include:

- Organisations with public health responsibilities, like local councils and Public Health England
- Other emergency services such as police, fire and rescue services
- NHS regulators such as NHS Digital, the Care Quality Commission, the General Medical Council, the Audit Commission and the Health Service Ombudsman, so that we can respond to queries they raise with us
- NHS Digital, NHS England and our CCGs for the purposes of gathering information about the delivery of NHS services this includes the use of Secondary Uses Service (SUS) which is the single, comprehensive repository for healthcare data in England which enables a range of reporting and analyses to support the NHS in the delivery of healthcare services
- Our professional advisors, including lawyers and accountants

How long will you keep personal data about me for?

We keep your personal information in line with our Records Retention Policy which is available on request.

Will you transfer my data outside of the EU?

We do not usually transfer patient personal data outside of the EU. If you receive a service that would involve a transfer outside of the EU we will write to you separately about this and obtain your consent prior.
